AAA (Ages 10-12)

A recreational league for our 10-11 year olds who either choose not to participate in Majors, or are not chosen in the draft or 12 year olds that opt out of Majors. Same rules and schedule as majors. Emphasis is on skills development, sportsmanship and having FUN!

$150.00*
League Rep:
Michael Woody
279-5452

Majors (Ages 10-12)

Little League Baseball rules apply in this competitive league. 6 teams of 12 players chosen by coaches after player evaluations (see reverse for more details). Games each Saturday and one weekday evening. League champ goes to the county tournament.

$150.00*
League Rep:
Joe Mengel
224-1475

Seniors (Ages 13-15)

Senior League baseball rules apply. The final stop for our RVLL players and a great combination of AAA and Majors players. Player evaluations are required for all players new to the Senior League (see reverse for details).

$150.00*
League Rep:
Dave Arens
270-6881

Did you know that it costs over $300 per player, per year, for RVLL to provide our baseball program? We strive to administer our program by conscientiously & carefully managing costs and utilizing volunteers as much as possible. Our goal is to deliver a fun, enjoyable experience for a fair price.

 Registration fees will increase $20.00 after February 6th*

Developing playing skills, sportsmanship, camaraderie & having FUN is the mission of RACCOON VALLEY LITTLE LEAGUE.

PLAYER EVALUATIONS

All Player Evaluations will be held at

Grand Slam USA, 4137 120th Street, Urbandale. Ph: 278-1070.

10-12 YEAR OLDS

All 10 year olds, and all 11-12 year olds not-previously selected to a Majors team, MUST participate in at least one evaluation session. You may attend either or both sessions. The purpose of these evaluations are to determine a player's ability in throwing, catching, fielding and hitting. Player evaluations are used to balance the team skill levels of the AAA division and to determine player-invitations for the Majors division. All players should wear gym shoes and bring their ball glove...you may also bring a bat.

Players will be notified of their team selection before March 13h.
